Dear Parent or Guardian,

We would like to take this opportunity to inform you that your child, _____, will continue in the Magnolia School's English as a Second Language (ESL) Program for the coming school year. The results of the ACCESS for ELLs test your child took in May confirm the need for continued participation in the program.

Your child will receive a minimum of thirty minutes of ESL instruction each day by a certified ESL teacher. Participation in this program will ultimately enable your child to make an easier transition to his or her regular classroom program.

Your child's ESL teacher will be _____

You have the right to have this letter translated into your native language. Please see our website at www.somerdale-park.org for translations. Feel free to contact us with any questions or concerns. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Jennifer Pontarelli
